In You Who Are Full of Grace

For the Liturgy of St. Basil

Duration: 2:45

Andante ♩= 88

Plagal Fourth Mode
(Brief Version)

by Anthimos the Archdeacon (d. 1879)

English Adaptation by Hieromonk Ephraim

In you who are full of grace all creation rejoices: both the congregations of angels and the human race. O consecrated temple and spiritual paradise, the boast of virgins, from you was God incarnate and became a child,
He, our God Who existed before the ages;

for He made your womb a throne, and He made you more spacious than the heavcens. In you who are full of grace all creation rejoices. Glory be to you.

Not if someone utters the words the psalm with his mouth, does that one sing to the Lord; but, all who send up the psalmody from a clean heart, and who are holy, maintaining righteousness toward God, these are able to sing to God, harmoniously guided by the spiritual rhythms.

-St. Basil the Great
