Fill My Mouth
with Your Praise

Chanted by the choir after the faithful have received communion

Presto  \( \text{\textit{\textminus}170} \)

Plagal First Mode

by Hieromonk Ephraim

Fill my mouth with Your praise, O Lord, and imbue my lips with joy,

so that I may hymn Your glory.

Alternate Melody

Second Mode

Fill my mouth with Your praise, O Lord, and imbue my lips with joy,

so that I may hymn Your glory.

Immediately after completing either of the above melodies,
the choir chants the following words in a monotone:

We thank You, O Christ our God, for You have counted us worthy to partake of Your body and blood unto remission of sins and eternal life. Since You are good and love mankind, keep us without condemnation, we pray.
