Having justly hated unjust riches, thou didst lay up treasures of salvation; for, receiving the Saviour within thy house, thou, O Zacchaeus, wast truly made marvellous with all the fruits of re-pen-tance thou-brought, blest forth: deeds of mer-cy, the cor-rection of wrongs, and god-ly life, because of which we hon-our thee and call thee blest.

Sing to God,
not with the voice,
but with the heart; not,
after the fashion of tragedians, in smearing the throat with a sweet drug, so that theatrical melodies and songs are heard in the church, but in fear, in work, and in knowledge of the Scriptures. And although a man be cacophonous, if he have good works, he is a sweet singer before God.

- St. Jerome