How godly was thy life, and how completely sacred thine end, O Father Athanasius! For at thine end, all the multitudes of Athos gathered; and as they beheld thee without breath upon thy bed, they exclaimed with mournful cries: Give thy serv

Vespers Aposticha Theotokion

Plagal Second Mode (Soft Chromatic)

Intonation: #17 or #18

Allegro \( \frac{\text{ Presto }}{160} \)

Both now and ever, and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

O Theotokos, thou art the true vine that hath blossomed forth the Fruit of Life. Thee do we supplicate:

Intercede, O Lady, together with the righteous one and all the Saints that our souls find mercy.

Allegro

The Angels’ ranks were awed by thy life in the flesh, how, though corporeal, and clad with earthly clay, thou didst set forth with courage to invisible wars and wrestlings and didst boldly smite the hordes of the demons with mortal wounds. Wherefore, Christ rewarded thee with abundant gifts in return. En-treat Him that our souls find salvation, O most renowned Father Athanasius.
