O Lady, by thine icon of Prusa thou art shown forth as the great protectress of Greece and a worker of dread wonders; for thou grantest sight unto the blind, O thou all-spotless Mariam; thou dost cast out wicked demons and heal est all that flee unto thee while crying: Glory unto thy child-birth without seed. Glory to Him that hath made thee wondrous. Glory to Him that work - eth such manner of marvels through thee.