Ninth Matinal Doxasticon (εοθινον)

Plagal First Mode

Intonation: #14 or #15

Andante \( \doteq 88 \)

Δόξα... 'Ως ἐπὶ ἔσχάτων

Glo-
-ry-
-ry to the Fa-ther, and to the Son, and to the Ho-

-l-ly

Spir-it.

In these latt-er times Thou cam-est
to Thy friends at evening of the first day of the week, O Christ; and by Thine entry whilst the doors were shut, Thou by a wonder didst confirm a wonder, even Thy Resurrection from the dead. Then Thou didst fill the disciples with joy and didst impart the Holy Spirit to them, and didst bestow on them authority to forgive sins; moreover, Thou didst not abandon Thomas to found ever in the billows of unbelief. Wherefore, grant us also true knowledge and the remission of Continue with the Theotokion in the mode of the week on pages 888-898.