For I know that the Lord is great. Alleluia.

And that our Lord is above all gods. Alleluia.

All that the Lord hath willed He hath done. Alleluia.

In heaven and on the earth. Alleluia.
In the seas and in all the abysses.

Al-le-lu-ia.

Bringing clouds up from the uttermost parts of the earth.

Al-le-lu-ia.

Lightnings for the rain hath He made.

Al-le-lu-ia.

He bringeth winds out of His treasuries.

Al-le-lu-ia.
D
He smote the first-born of Egypt. Alleluia.

D
From man unto beast. Alleluia.

D
He sent forth signs and marvels in the midst of thee, O Egypt. Alleluia.

D
On Pharaooh and on all his servants. Alleluia.

D
He smote many nations. Alleluia.
And He gave their land for an inheritance.

An inheritance for Israel His people.

O Lord, Thy name endureth for ever.

And Thy memorial unto generation and generation.

Al-le-lu-ia.

Al-le-lu-ia.

Al-le-lu-ia.

Al-le-lu-ia.
For the Lord will judge His people. Alleluia.

And because of His servants shall He be comforted. Alleluia.

The idols of the nations are silver and gold, the works of the hands of men. Alleluia.

They have a mouth but shall not speak. Alleluia.
Eyes have they and shall not see. Alleluia.

Ears have they and shall not hear. Alleluia.

Nor is there any breath in their mouth. Alleluia.

Let those that make them become like unto them. Alleluia.
And all they that put their trust in them. Alleluia.

O house of Israel, bless ye the Lord. Alleluia.

O house of Aaron, bless ye the Lord. Alleluia.

Ye that fear the Lord, bless ye the Lord. Alleluia.

Blessed is the Lord out of Sion, Who dwelleth in Jerusalem.

(The second choir chants the final Alleluia so that the first choir may begin the next psalm.)
