Ἡχός ἡ ἀ γά σα

'Ανέστης ἐκ νεκρῶν

hou, as the Life of all, from the dead art arisen. An Angel bright with light called out unto the women: Cease ye from tears and weeping; tell the Apostles the tidings full of joy. Cry aloud singing praises, that Christ the Lord is arisen from the dead, He that in truth hath been well pleased, as God, to save the race of mankind.
When in truth Thou hadst risen up from the tomb, Thou didst charge the most righteous woman to preach Thy Rising, and be holding the light in the grave, he was sore amazed. Though he then believed there-in the linen clothes lying alone in a sep'rate place, Thy divine Body was not there. For this cause he believed and cried: Glory be to Thee, O Christ God, O our Saviour, for Thou savest all, since Thou art God the Father’s Fulfillment, ever shining forth from Him.

Both now and ever, and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

Let us all praise the heavenly gate and ark, yea, the all-holy mountain, the radiant cloud, the ladder to Heaven’s heights, that true spiritual paradise, the redemption.
tion of Eve, the great treasure of all the world; for through her was salvation enacted for all mankind, and complete forgiveness of our ancient offenses and pardon of trespasses. For this reason, we all cry out with great fervor and say to her: Entrace thy Son and God that He grant the forgiveness of transgressions wrought in life to them that piously worship thee all-holy Child, O Maid.
"Ἀνθρωποὶ τὸ μνήμα σου

M en sealed Thy tomb, O Saviour; an Angel rolled away the stone from the door. The women beheld Thee arisen from the dead, and they proclaimed the good tidings unto Thy disciples in Simon: that Thou art risen, O Life of all, and the bonds of death are loosed. Lord, glory be to Thee.
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

Τὰ μύρα τῆς ταφῆς

The women brought their myrrh for the burial ointment and heard an Angel's voice from the sepulchre saying:

Cease ye from tears and weeping; in stead of sorrow, receive exceeding joy; cry aloud singing praises, that Christ the Lord is arisen from the dead, He that in truth hath been well pleased, as God, to save the race of man kind.
Both now and ever, and unto the ages of ages
A-men.

Ἐπί σοί χαίρει Κεχαριτωμένη

In thee, O Full of Grace, all creation, both the company of Angels and the race of men, doth rejoice.

O hallowed temple and spiritual paradise, boast of virgins: from thee God was incarnate, and became a child, He, our God, Who existed before the ages; for He made thy womb a throne, and He made thee more spacious than the heavens. In thee, O Full of Grace, all creation doth rejoice.
Glo - - ry be to thee.
