God is the Lord

Long (Sticheraric) Versions*

First Mode

¹Ηχος Λ Πα

God is the Lord, and hath appeared unto us; blessed is He that cometh in the Name of the Lord.

* These long versions are chanted in all-night vigils.
Second Mode
(soft chromatic)

\[ \text{Intonation: #7} \]

\[ \text{God is the Lord, and hath appeared unto us; blessed is He that cometh in the Name of the Lord.} \]

Third Mode

\[ \text{Intonation: #8} \]

\[ \text{God is the Lord, and hath appeared unto us; blessed is He that cometh in the Name of the Lord.} \]
God is the Lord - Long Versions

Fourth Mode
(soft chromatic)

God is the Lord, and hath appeared unto us; blessed is He that cometh in the Name of the Lord.

Plagal First Mode

God is the Lord, and hath appeared unto us; blessed is He that cometh in the Name of the Lord.
Plagal Second Mode
(soft chromatic)

\[
\begin{align*}
\text{Intonation: } & \text{#17} \\
& \text{God is the Lord, and hath appeared unto us; } \\
& \text{blessed } \text{is He that cometh in } \\
& \text{the Name of the Lord.}
\end{align*}
\]

Grave Mode

\[
\begin{align*}
\text{Intonation: } & \text{#21} \\
& \text{God is the Lord, and hath appeared unto us; } \\
& \text{blessed is He that cometh in the Name of the Lord.}
\end{align*}
\]
God is the Lord - Long Versions

Plagal Fourth Mode

Intonation: #25

God is the Lord, and hath appeared unto us; blessed is He that cometh in the Name of the Lord.